THRO' KENTUCKY.

Thro' the grand state of Kentucky, Where the "Old Home" got its name, Where the fields are overflowing With the yellow ripening grain,

Here tobacco plants are growing, In the fields not sown with corn, Tobacco plants-big as cactus-Just as sure as you are born.

Yes, they're large as good-sized cactus, Larger in our home-like view, But it's of a fine a grade as Is that old "Kentucky Dew."

Here all people reap a harvest, Money in bank from year to year, All the green calamity howlers, Lose their jobs when they land here.

Here the "dry" ways are the highways, Built high and dry from rains and flood Here the "good roads delegation," Swear the roads are sutt'nly good.

But of pikes and highways finest, There's a "road" that suits my taste; Tis the line of Solid Comfort, And the trains let no time waste.

From Kentucky to St. Louis, Operates this road of class, Across the famous old "Green River" On its roadbed smooth as glass.

Would you know the road I speak of? Listen then to my advice, For you'll need it in your business, On your trip to Paradise.

In your travels to St. Louis-Hustle; beat them under the wire, "Get the 'Henderson Route' habit"-'Tis a good one to acquire.

-[Jack "Henderson" Gallagher"
